Interior Plantscape Association Code of Ethics

The code of ethics for Interior Plantscape Association (IPA) include:

- To uphold the objectives of the Association, encouraging a spirit of harmony and co-operation with fellow members and to promote and support the policies and principles of our Association.
- To enhance and foster the professional and ethical practice in the rendering of my services to bring honour and dignity to the Interior Plantscape Industry.
- To maintain the highest standard of honesty and integrity to my clients and fellow members.
- To encourage educational development and training and the research into new methods and techniques to improve workmanship quality and ensure continued professional development (CPD).
- To strenuously work for preservation of my industry to stimulate the free enterprise system and assist in the framing of legislative proposals for the benefit of my industry and those I serve.
- To assume these responsibilities freely and mindful of my obligations to serve the Association and thus enrich the overall industry through dedication and service.
